

WHAT IS ANYWHERE CREATOR SPACE?

Anywhere Creator Space is a collaborative workplace that aims at giving your ideas, passions, and skills a place to begin and come to life. Current amenities including a common design & idea space, photography studio, textiles/craft room, and workshop for basic woodworking & building. Future expansion of the space is also collaborative, and if a member is passionate about something, we'll do what we can to set up a relevant and fruitful environment. Whether it's a simple passion for a certain skill or craft you want to cultivate, or an idea for a product you want to bring to life, Anywhere wants to provide you with the tools, knowledge, and most of all the platform to create.

WHY "ANYWHERE"?

The late American experimental composer John Cage coined the phrase "Begin Anywhere." The point of this is an answer to the often stifling question "Where do I begin?". In any chore, task or job, big or small, the very thing stopping us from creating may very well be not knowing where to begin. We want this space to be the solution to at least that dilemma. We want you to Begin Anywhere.
